Alexandria Gazette

TUESDAY EVENING, JAN. 7, 1908.

A Wasted Present.
"What in the world shall I send Aunt Betsy, John?" demanded the masterful lady of the mild little man.
"A workbasket or a book?" he suggested.
"Don't be a fool, John! You're no taste. I'll send her one of those fancy boxes of soap."
And she lifted to her nose a box containing six round tablets of perfumed soap.
"Yes," she continued, "this is the very thing!"
"But, my dear, really!" he protested.
"You be quiet, John! Now, wrap this up, mite!"

Two days later a packet arrived from Aunt Betsy, and in haste they opened it to see how she had taken their thoughtful present. Under the wrapping was the affectionate message:
"Niece—Here with I return the box of shaving soap you sent me. I am too old to appreciate the joke of being regarded as a bearded lady. Your aunt, Betsy."

Then, but only for a moment, the mild little man smiled.—Pearson's Weekly.

A Dreadful Assault.
Justice Ball, an Irish judge, was noted for his amusing manifestations of ignorance, but whether they were real or pretended has never been clearly established. He tried a case in which a man was indicted for robbery at the house of a poor widow. The first witness was the young daughter of the widow, who identified the prisoner as the man who had entered the house and smashed her mother's chest.
"Do you say that the prisoner at the bar broke your mother's chest?" said the judge in astonishment.
"He did, my lord," answered the girl.
"He jumped on it till he smashed it entirely."
The judge turned to the crown counsel and said: "How is this? Why is not the prisoner indicted for murder? If he smashed this poor woman's chest in the way the witness has described, he must surely have killed her!"
"But, my lord," said the counsel, "it was a wooden chest."—Cornhill Magazine.

The Buds.
Old Dr. Ryland, clergyman and educator, was greatly beloved in the south, and his visits were always enjoyed by his former pupils and parishioners. In his later years it was his custom to offer prayer whenever he made a ministerial call. On one occasion he called at a house where three of his former pupils were staying. These ladies were all past the thirtieth year mark, but in the eyes of the old gentleman they were still girls, which explains the petition he offered:
"Lord, bless these dear girls, just budding into sweet womanhood."
This was too much for one of the number, who, taking advantage of the doctor's absence, added this clause to the prayer: "Alas, Lord, blessed, bloomed, faded and still unopened!"

Got His Discount.
"The other day I was in a village general store," said a drummer, " endeavoring to make a sale of jewelry when a farmer entered.
"Give me," said the farmer, "a half pound of tobacco, three bars of soap, five yards of blue baby ribbon and a pair of good suspenders."
"The articles were brought forth, inspected, approved and wrapped up. They came to 95 cents.
"Yes," said the farmer, "95's right. But there's the discount. You advertise a 5 per cent discount, don't you?"
"We do, sir," said the clerk, "but only on purchases of $1 or over."
"On the counter lay a basket of pocket combs marked at 5 cents apiece.
"Well, I'll just take one of these," said the farmer. "That'll make us square!"

A Stingy King.
In the beginning of the eighteenth century the now so powerful German empire was nothing more than the little kingdom of Prussia, having just dropped its title of duchy of Brandenburg. The country was very poor and the military discipline very harsh. Frederick William I. was hard, cross and stingy and did not even know what it was to make a present. His reputation was so widely spread that it became a byword to say that a man had worked for the king of Prussia when he had done an unprofitable task.

Maximilian and "La Paloma."
Wherever that haunting air, "La Paloma," is played the memory of the Emperor Maximilian, shot by the Mexicans on June 19, 1867, should be preserved. Maximilian's final request was that "La Paloma" should be played while he stood up to meet his doom. He died with the tune in his ears, and his wife went mad with the shock of his execution.

Why Suffer from Rheumatism.
Do you know that rheumatic pains can be relieved? If you doubt this just try use application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It will make rest and sleep possible, and that certainly means a great deal to any one afflicted with rheumatism. For sale by W. T. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

Cured of Lung Trouble.
"It is now eleven years since I had a narrow escape from consumption," writes C. O. Floyd, a leading business man of Kershaw, S. C. "I had run down in weight to 135 pounds, and coughing was constant, both by day and by night. Finally I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and continued this for about six months, when my cough and lung trouble were entirely gone and I was restored my normal weight, 170 pounds. Thousands of persons are healed every year. Guaranteed at all drug stores. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free."

Do the right thing if you have Nasal Catarrh. Get Ely's Cream Balm at once. Don't touch the external powder and snuffs, for they contain cocaine. Ely's Cream Balm releases the secretions that inflame the nasal passages and the throat, whereas medicines made with mercury merely dry up the secretions and leave you no better than you were. In a word, Ely's Cream Balm is a remedy, not a delusion. All druggists, 50 cents, or mailed by Ely's Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York.

PURE VINEGAR AND SPICES for pickles for sale by J. C. MILBURN.

Ask your barber for a tonic rub for NICKLIN'S HAIR TONIC. Manufactured by J. C. MILBURN.

Effectually Squelched.
The clerk in a dry goods store was waxing sarcastic at the boarding house table because the schoolteacher said she was tired. "I don't see how you have the nerve to say that," he said. "You have a snip. Your hours are short, and, although you say you have to look over papers in the evening, I reckon you don't have to spend much time on them. Then look at the vacations you have—a week or two at Christmas, another in the spring, two or three days at Thanksgiving time and then the entire summer. Look at me. I have to work eight hours every day, with only a half hour at noon, and once in awhile I have to put in an evening at the store when they take inventory of stock. And my vacation! I get the legal holidays, two weeks in the summer and during the hot months a half day off, and heaven knows what a good half day does! Gee! Schoolteachers certainly have a cinch."

During this harangue the schoolteacher listened carefully to the noise he made while he talked. When he finished she said sweetly: "Well, why don't you become a schoolteacher? There's no law to prevent you that I know of."

On the Dynamite Ships.
There is a service whose conditions are little known to the outside world, that of the men on the dynamite ships that lurk in the shadow of Canvey Island. It once happened that a cargo boat took fire near Canvey Island, the crew could not extinguish the flames, and the vessel had to be abandoned, and the tide carried her straight for the dynamite ships. By a miracle the blazing hulk steered safely between them. But the tide turned, and with it back again she came. Another miracle and the floating inferno missed them all a second time. A spark from her blazing timbers, the least shock from a collision and she had exploded such a mine as would have blown the half of Essex into liquid. She floated, hissing and spluttering, down the tideway and passed away, to burn her self to the water's edge beyond the reach of dynamite. And the silent, lonely men stayed unflinching at their posts and twice saw the grave open and close before them.—Army and Navy.
